

Waverley Town Hall Centenary

Waverley's Town Hall is exactly 100 years old, the hall was officially opened on August 21, 1908. The community gathered on the same date in 2008 as an Historic Places Plaque was presented by Diana Beaglehole to Duncan and Helen Fairweather, the great great grandchildren of the builder of the Town Hall, who accepted on behalf of the town.

